

ResApp receives $818,826 in R&D tax incentive refund

Brisbane, Australia, 20 December 2021 – ResApp Health Limited (ASX:RAP), a leading digital health company developing smartphone applications for the diagnosis and management of respiratory disease, is pleased to advise that it has received $818,826 from its research and development (R&D) tax incentive claim for the financial year ending 30 June 2021.

The R&D tax incentive program is jointly administered by the Australian Taxation Office and the Department of Industry, Innovation and Science, and allows companies to receive up to a 43.5% refundable tax offset of eligible expenses associated with research and development initiatives.

CEO and Managing Director, Dr Tony Keating said: “We are grateful for the Australian Federal Government’s continued commitment to supporting R&D by Australian companies. ResApp is the global leader in using audio to diagnose and manage respiratory health, and the R&D tax incentive program helps us to continue to invest in R&D to maintain this leadership.”

The refund strengthens the company’s cash position, which was $4.4 million as of 30 September 2021.
